

The physical therapist's 1st Choice for pelvic tension release!™

Essential V-TheraWand®

The V-Wand is 7/8" in diameter at its widest and is 8" in length. The Release-Ends™ include an opposable-thumb shape and a finger-tip like end. The brilliant curves and design make the V-Wand perfect to gently massage muscles that are tender, tight or have trigger-points.

Premium LA-TheraWand®

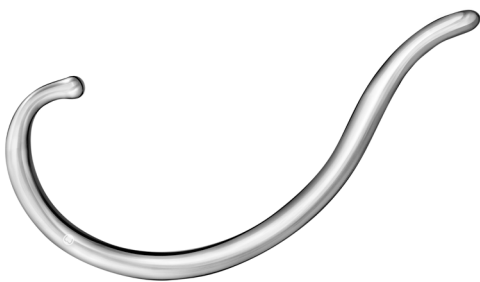

The LA-Wand's 9" length aids in reachability. It has a thinner diameter of 5/8". The Release-Ends™ include a gentle curve with a tapered end and a handle end. The LA-Wand is perfect to gently massage muscles that are tender, tight or have trigger-points.

Pocket-Wand®

No need to wait to alleviate discomfort. The Pocket-Wand's small size, with a length of 5.5 inches long and its unique design make this wand a perfect traveling companion.

Trigger-Wand®

Our first wand designed specifically for men!

Pelvic Therapies, Inc. is excited to announce the arrival of the new Trigger-Wand®, a specialized wand for male use which has been designed to release posterior as well as lateral and anterior pelvic floor muscles.

Each wand comes sealed in plastic, with a carrying pouch and general instructions. Please consult with a Healthcare Practitioner for individualized instructions. Our patented wands are made from medical grade acrylic and are made in the USA.
